From

To

THE HON'BLE SIR STEYNING W. EDGERLEY, C.I.E., I. C. S.,
Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department,
Bombay.

Police Commissioner's Office,
Bombay, 11th May 1906.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit herewith the Annual Report on the working of the Bombay City Police for the year 1905 together with the usual statements as appendices including the quinquennial statement G as required by Government Resolutions Nos. 403 and 1072, dated 18th January and 11th February 1902 respectively. As the Chief Presidency Magistrate has intimated that, as the orders of Government were received too late last year, the statistics usually supplied by the Magistracy cannot be furnished in the new Imperial form which accompanied Government Resolution No. 4561 of the 6th September last, the whole of the statistics have been entered in the old forms. The new forms will, however, be introduced for the purposes of the report of the current year (1906).

2. Mr. H. G. Gell, M. V. O., was in charge of the office of the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, from 1st January to 20th November 1905, when he proceeded on one year's leave on medical certificate to Europe. I took over charge of the office of the Commissioner of Police, Bombay, on the 23rd December after office hours and held the post to the close of the year. During the interval, 20th November to 23rd December, Mr. R. M. Phillips held charge of the office of Commissioner in addition to his own duties.

3. The post of the Deputy Commissioner of Police was held by the following officers:—

Mr. R. P. Lambert, from 1st January to 31st March 1905;
Mr. K. A. Reinold (deceased), from 1st April to 10th June 1905; and
Mr. R. M. Phillips, from 15th June to 31st December 1905. (He was also attached to this office as Assistant to the Commissioner of Police from the 10th to the 17th March 1905.)

I may further mention that previous to his taking over charge of the Deputy Commissioner's appointment the late Mr. K. A. Reinold held the temporary appointment of Assistant to the Commissioner from 18th to 31st March 1905, and that on the occasion of the Royal Visit to Bombay in November last, the late Mr. Pogson and I were appointed extra Deputy Commissioners, whilst the services of Mr. Heyland were utilized for a portion of the period of the visit.

Crime.

4. The total number of cognizable offences reported during the year was 51,570 as compared with 49,879 cases in 1904 and 42,814 cases in 1903.

Out of this year's total of 51,570 cases, 45,859 were reported to the Police and 5,711 to the Magistracy. In addition to the above number there were 22 Police and 6 Magisterial cases pending from the previous year 1904, making a total of 45,881 Police and 5,717 Magisterial cases for disposal. The figures in this connection for the triennial period ending with the year under report stand as follows:—

	Police.	Magisterial.
1903	37,330	5,530
1904	44,389	5,519
1905	45,881	5,717

The increase of 6,901 Police cases last year was shown to have been due entirely to prosecutions under Local Acts and this year's increase of 1,514 Police and 205 Magisterial cases is mainly attributable to the same cause and will be dealt with later on in the report.

5. The non-cognizable offences which were reported to the Magistrates direct numbered 9,490 as against 9,280 in the year 1904 and 9,078 in 1903. The totals of cognizable and non-cognizable cases for the last 3 years are as follows:—

1903	51,892
1904	59,159
1905	61,060

6. As usual I give the following comparative statement showing details of cognizable and non-cognizable crime for the year under report and the preceding year:—

Police cognizable cases, all classes, including undetected and excluded cases.

7. The total number of cognizable cases reported to the Police under all classes was 45,859 as compared with 44,367 in the preceding year and 37,290 in 1903. Including 22 cases from the year 1904, the total number of offences dealt with by the Police during the year was 45,881. Of this number 43,471 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 94·74 as compared with 97·37 for the preceding year and 95·26 for 1903.

8. Under the Indian Penal Code there were 4,394 cases which with 13 pending cases of previous year left 4,407 for disposal as compared with 4,303 and 4,371 for 1904 and 1903 respectively. Of this year's cases 3,203 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 72·67 as against 87·12 in 1904 and 73·56 in 1903.

9. Under the head of Class VI and Miscellaneous 41,465 cases were reported as compared with 40,084 in the preceding year and 32,949 in 1903. With 9 cases pending from the previous year the total number dealt with for the year under report was 41,474. Of this number 40,268 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 97·09 as compared with 98·28 in 1904 and 98·13 in 1903. An explanation regarding the increase in the number of cases will be found in paragraph 21 under the heading of miscellaneous offences.

Excluded Cases.

10. There were 849 cases excluded during the year as compared with 598 in 1904 and 554 in 1903. The increase does not call for special remark as it is the natural sequence of the general increase in the number of cases brought on the register. Of this year's excluded cases 212 were under the Penal Code and 637 under Class VI. The following are the details :—

Mistakes of fact	47
Non-cognizable	3
False	62
Compounded	42
Withdrawn	70
Transferred	49
Accused not having responded to their recognizances ...	515
Various other reasons	61
	849

Maliciously False Cases.

11. There were 62 false cases during the year as compared with 68 in 1904 and 65 in 1903. In 51 of this year's false cases the Magistrates awarded compensation ranging from Re. 1 to Rs. 85 under section 553, Criminal Procedure Code, to the accused for vexatious complaints.

Real Cases.

12. The total amount of real crime dealt with during the year under report was 45,032 as compared with 43,791 in the preceding year and 36,776 in 1903. This year 43,471 cases resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 96·53 as against 96·91 in the year 1904 and 96·57 in 1903. Out of this year's total number of cases 4,195 were under the Indian Penal Code as compared with 4,045 in 1904 and 4,141 in 1903. The number of cases ending in conviction was 3,203, giving a percentage of 76·35 as against 76·11 in the previous year and 76·72 in 1903. It will be observed that there has been very little variation in the number of cases and in the convictions obtained under the Indian Penal Code during the last 3 years.

The real crime under Class VI and Miscellaneous amounted to 40,837 inclusive of 9 pending cases as compared with 39,746 in 1904 and 32,635 in 1903. The figures for this year show 40,268 cases resulting in conviction, giving a percentage of 98·60 as against 99·12 in the year 1904 and 99·08 in 1903. The reasons for the increase of cases under this class will be found in paragraph 21 below.

Real and False Cases and their Proportion to Cases Reported, to Population and to the Police.

13. Real and false cases of all descriptions including pending cases of previous year numbered 45,881 and 849 respectively as against 43,791 and 598 in the preceding year and 36,776 and 554 in 1903. The increase in the number of excluded cases is in proportion to the increase in the number of cases for disposal.

14. The proportion of true crime to population was 1 to 17·23 as against 1 to 17·72 in the preceding year and 1 to 21·10 in 1903, and that of crime to police was 20·36 to 1 as against 19·80 to 1 in the year 1904 and 16·41 to 1 in 1903.

Result of trial by Classes.

15. Class I.—Offences against the State, Public Tranquillity, Safety and Justice.—There were 34 cases under this class this year compared with 52 in 1904 and 43 in 1903, and the decrease this year has occurred under the head of "Other offences against Public Justice" and "Offences relating to coins." With 1 pending case of the previous year there were 35 cases for disposal, of which 26 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 74·28 as against 82·69 and 76·74 for 1904 and 1903 respectively.

16. Class II.—Serious offences against the person.—Under this class there were 404 cases for disposal for the year under report as compared with 334 in 1904 and 334 in 1903. The increase is observable mostly under the heads of "Other murders," "Rape" and "Hurt by dangerous weapons." Out of the 404 offences referring to this year 286 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 70·79 as against 65·10 in the preceding year and 68·62 in the year 1903. It should be observed here that out of the 15 cases of murder 11 cases were sent up to the Courts, of which 7 resulted in conviction.

17. Class III.—Serious offences against the person and property or against property only.—There were 494 cases for disposal under this class for the year under report as compared with 415 and 410 in 1904 and 1903 respectively. The increase is mainly due to "Lurking house trespass or house-breaking" (Serial No. 36) and "House trespass" (Serial No. 37). Out of the cases for disposal this year 232 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 46·96 as against 49·39 in the preceding year and 50·61 in 1903. The Return (Statement A, Part III) also shows 1 case of dacoity as against a similar number in 1904. Seven persons were concerned in this year's case, 4 of whom were convicted, 2 acquitted and 1 died before trial.

18. Class IV.—Minor offences against the person.—There were 31 offences reported under this class as against 17 and 23 in 1904 and 1903 respectively. Out of the 31 offences, 20 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 64·51 as against 88·23 in 1904 and 44·00 in 1903.

19. Class V.—Minor offences against property.—There were 3,443 cases under this class for disposal during the year under report as compared with 3,435 in the preceding year and 3,470 in 1903. This year 2,639 cases resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 76·67 as against 83·90 and 77·19 in 1904 and 1903 respectively.

20. Class VI.—Other offences not specified above.—Under this class there were 468 cases as compared with 514 and 506 in 1904 and 1903 respectively. The variations which occur under the several heads comprising this class do not call for explanation. 454 cases ended in conviction during the year, giving a percentage of 97·00 as against 92·99 and 88·58 for 1904 and 1903 respectively.

Miscellaneous Offences.

21. This year there were 41,006 miscellaneous offences for disposal as compared with 39,572 and 32,451 for 1904 and 1903 respectively. The increase of offences under this class falls mainly under the Public Conveyance Act, Police Act (Drunkenness), Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and Indian Ports Act, as will be seen from the following detailed figures relating to the last 3 years :—

	1903.	1904.	1905.
Public Conveyance Act ...	3,151	3,967	4,591
Police Act (Drunkenness) ...	2,107	2,376	2,921
Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act	771	1,070	1,986
Indian Ports Act	188	324	409

The increase under the Public Conveyance Act is in the main due to greater vigilance exercised by the Police, though with a general increase in the number of public conveyances a corresponding increase in the number of cases under the Act must be expected. The substantial rise in the number of prosecutions under the Act for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is a distinctly healthy and satisfactory sign of the times. Of this year's miscellaneous offences 39,814 resulted in conviction, giving a percentage of 97·09 as compared with 98·34 in the preceding year and 98·26 in the year 1903.

Serious Crime generally.

22. During the year under report there were 20 cases of murder and attempts at murder, and including 1 case pending from previous year there were altogether 21 cases for disposal as compared with 20 in 1904 and 15 in 1903. Of the cases for disposal this year 11 resulted in conviction, 1 in acquittal, 4 remained undetected, 2 were transferred, 2 were pending trial at the close of the year and 1 case was excluded by the Magistrate as "no offence." In 1904 10 cases out of 20 ended in conviction as against 9 convictions in 15 cases in 1903.

Suicides.

23. I subjoin the usual statement of suicide cases compiled by the Coroner:—

24. During the year under report the Coroner held 308 inquests as against 324 in the preceding year, showing a decrease of 16 inquests.

Sessions cases and persons.

26. During the year 1905 the Sessions Court tried in all 49 cases as compared with 46 and 56 in 1904 and 1903 respectively. 42 of this year's cases ended in conviction, 1 in acquittal and 6 in discharge. 69 persons were implicated in this year's cases, 59 of whom were convicted, 1 was acquitted and 9 were discharged.

Undetected cases.

27. 753 cases remained undetected at the close of the year 1905 as compared with 765 cases in the preceding year and 651 in the year 1903.

All the undetected cases for the year under report fell under the Indian Penal Code. The percentages in connection with these cases for the triennial period are as follows:—

1903	...	...	... 1·74
1904	...	...	... 1·72
1905	...	...	... 1·64

Action of the Police in dealing with offences under A'bkári, Salt, Customs and Opium Laws.

28. During the year under report 79 cases were reported under the A'bkári Act as compared with 78 in the preceding year and 123 in 1903. Out of the 79 cases for the year under report 72 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 91·13 as against 92·30 in the year 1904 and 91·86 in 1903. There was also one case under the head of "Salt and Customs Laws" which resulted in conviction.

29. During the year under report 49,489 persons were arrested by the Police, making, with 31 prisoners pending from the previous year, a total of 49,520 prisoners for disposal as compared with 49,723 in 1904 and 40,568 in 1903. As regards the prisoners for disposal for the year under report 47,631 were convicted showing a percentage of 96·18 as compared with 96·72 in the preceding year and 96·39 in 1903. The precentage of prisoners convicted to prisoners tried is as follows:—

1905	...	...	... 97·65
1904	...	...	... 97·75
1903	...	...	... 97·85

Disposed of by trial.

31. 4,218 persons were tried in connection with offences under the Indian Penal Code, of whom 3,686 were convicted, showing a percentage of 87·38 as against 87·35 in the previous year and 88·62 in the year 1903.

32. Under Class VI and Miscellaneous offences 44,558 persons were tried of whom 43,945 were convicted, showing a percentage of 98·62 as compared with 98·74 in the preceding year and 98·35 in the year 1903.

35. During the year 1905 the total number of non-cognizable cases for disposal was 9,526 including 36 that were pending from the previous year. Of this number 3,567 ended in conviction, giving a percentage of 37·44 as compared with 47·08 for the year 1904 and 49·21 in 1903. The remaining 5,959 cases were disposed of as follows:—

Ended in acquittal	2,671

	5,959

(b) Persons.

Castes of offenders.

37. The following statement shows the different castes to which 67,727 offenders, dealt with in both cognizable and non-cognizable cases, belonged:—

	Castes.														Grand Total.
	Europeans.		Portuguese and Native Christians.		Hindus.		Mahomedans.		Parsees.		Others.		Total.

Property stolen and recovered.

38. The total value of the property alleged to have been stolen in Police cognizable cases in the year under report amounted to Rs. 4,30,796 as against Rs. 3,23,948 in the preceding year and Rs. 2,89,376 in 1903. The value of property recovered in these cases amounted to Rs. 1,63,466, giving a percentage of 37·94 as against 50·91 in the preceding year and 55·65 in 1903. The number of cases in which property was stolen was 3,543 as against 3,476 in the previous year and 3,555 in 1903 and that in which it was recovered was 2,837 as against 2,812 in the year 1904 and 2,901 in 1903, the percentages working out to 80·07 as against 80·89 and 81·57 in the years 1904 and 1903 respectively.

The value of the stolen property for the year under report is higher than that of the preceding years and the low percentage in connection with property recovered to property stolen is mainly due to a few undetected cases in which the value of the property was high. In such cases the property may or may not have been over-estimated; but gauged by the test of the number of cases in which property was stolen and the cases in which property was recovered, the work of the Police for the year under report would appear to be on a par with that of the 2 former years.

General results of working.

39. The salient features of this year's history of crime would appear to be.—

(i) A further increase in the number of cognizable cases reported which was mainly under the Local Acts comprised in the heading "Class VI and Miscellaneous," the increase being specially noticeable under the Public Conveyance Act and the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act.

(ii) A fall in the percentage of cases ending in conviction to cases reported which when compared with the percentage for 1903 is insignificant; whilst at the same time the percentage of convictions in real cases as also of persons convicted to persons arrested has remained practically stationary for the last 3 years.

(iii) A drop in the percentage of property recovered to property stolen which was neutralised to a great extent by the percentage of cases in which property was recovered to cases in which property was stolen.

Viewing these general results as a whole, the force would appear to have maintained its reputation for efficiency in grappling with crime.

Arms, Explosives and Petroleum Acts.

(a) Arms Act.

40. During the year under report 36 persons were licensed to deal in arms and ammunition in Bombay. The shops and godowns of these licensed dealers were regularly inspected throughout the year at least once a month and their stock and sale books examined and found correct. One of the dealers had his license (Form VII-B) suspended for the year 1906 (vide Government letter No. 3898, dated the 3rd August 1905).

41. The following statement shows the number of licenses and permits issued under these Acts by the Commissioner of Police during the year 1905 :—

42. Similarly the following table shows to what sections of the community the license holders for the possession of arms belong :—

43. There were no prosecutions under the Arms Act during 1905. The accused in a case of 1904 (vide paragraph 40 of the Report for the year 1904), who was shown as discharged, was on an appeal convicted under section 19 (a) and (f) of the Arms Act in March 1906.

(b) Explosives Act.

44. The magazines and godowns of the various license holders under the Explosives Act (IV of 1884) were inspected as often as possible during the year and were found to be maintained according to the orders of Government. One person was prosecuted under Rule 4 of the Rules under the Explosives Act, convicted and fined Rs. 50 and the fireworks confiscated.

9 magazines were licensed during 1905 under Rule 17 of the Rules made under section 5 of the Act.

45. The following table gives a summary of licenses issued under the Explosives Act :—

Description.	1904.	1905.	Increase.	Decrease.

(c) Petroleum Act.

46. The godowns licensed under this Act during 1905 were periodically inspected and were found to be maintained according to standing orders. There were no prosecutions under the Act.

47. The following table shows the number of licenses issued under the Petroleum Act (VIII of 1899) :—

Description.	1904.	1905.	Increase.	Decrease.

Motor Vehicles Act (II of 1904).

48. The registration of motor vehicles was commenced on the 1st March 1905 and by the close of the year 364 vehicles were registered. Besides 474 licenses were issued to drivers of such vehicles.

Eight persons were prosecuted and convicted as under for breaches of the Act :—

3 under section 4 ;
2 „ Rule 9 (4) and (1) ;
2 „ section 6 ; and
1 „ Rule 12 (1) and (3).

Pilgrims.

49. 19,177 pilgrims left Bombay for the Hedjaz during the year 1905. The details are as under :—

16,577 Pilgrims from British territories.
2,347 Pilgrims from Foreign territories.
253 Pilgrims who had obtained passports from different British Civil and Political officers in India.

19,177

During the same period 13,908 pilgrims returned from the Hedjaz vid Bombay and were sent to their homes in different parts of India under the usual Police arrangements.

Mohurrum.

50. With reference to the remarks on the subject in the former year's report it is satisfactory to note that this important religious festival passed off quietly.

Deportation of Foreigners.

51. Only 2 foreigners of the class of procurers were ordered by Government to remove themselves from British India under the provisions of Act III of 1864 and both of them complied with these orders.

Similarly 11 Arabs from Hyderabad (Deccan) and 1 from Bombay were deported under the orders of Government.

Fires.

52. The total number of fires that took place in the City of Bombay during the year 1905 was 93 and the aggregate amount of property lost was estimated at Rs. 17,81,224. The figures for 1904 were—

Fires 92
Estimated loss of property worth ... Rs. 17,97,346

Street Accidents.

53. During the year under report 730 persons were injured and 52 were killed by being run over, 10 by tram cars and 42 by other conveyances, showing an increase of 7 in the number of those killed and of 44 in the number of those injured. The Mounted Police alone dealt with 1,501 cases of rash driving during the year 1905 as compared with 1,190 during 1904, showing an increase of 309 cases.

Conveyances.

54. The total number of public and private conveyances in the City of Bombay during the year 1905 was as under :—

Public conveyances	9,678
Private do.	7,812
Total ...	17,490

showing an increase of 253 and 781 in public and private conveyances respectively. The public conveyances consisted of—

Victorias	1,356
Recklas	214
Labour Carts	8,108
Total ...	9,678

Habitual Crimes and Offenders.

55. The following statement shows the work done by the Criminal Identification Branch of this office in regard to the tracing of finger impression slips of convicts :—

Year.	Number of finger impressions received for identification.	Number of prisoners identified.
1903	2,857	474
1904	2,898	531
1905	2,963	474

56. It may be mentioned that in addition to the 474 prisoners identified by this office, 95 others were identified by the Presidency Bureau and 5 by other Bureaux, making a total of 574. Out of the 474 prisoners locally identified 41 were juveniles, many of whom had more than 1 previous conviction.

Bad Characters.

57. Under Chapter VIII of the Criminal Procedure Code there were 38 cases as compared with 45 in the preceding year and 37 in 1903. As regards the cases for the year under report, 35 ended in conviction, only 3 resulting in acquittal. 38 persons in 35 cases were required to furnish security or were imprisoned for failing to do so, whilst in 3 cases the evidence was not considered sufficient to warrant such an order and hence the 3 accused were acquitted.

Criminal Classes and influx of suspicious Foreigners.

58. During the year under report 28 Harnis were arrested in Bombay, of whom 12 were deported to Ludhiana and 16 to Ahmednagar by the orders of the Magistracy. Seven Harnis were arrested in the former year.

Police Establishment.

59. The strength and distribution of the force remained the same as that for the year 1904 with the exception of the addition of 15 men sanctioned for the Docks (vide Government Resolution, Judicial Department, No. 1340, dated the 14th March 1905).

Punishments.

60. 433 officers and men were punished during 1905 as compared with 620 in 1904 and 800 in 1903.

The details for the year under report are given below :—

Departmentally	405
Judicially	4
Dismissed	24
	433

The further decrease this year of 190 in the number of departmental punishments would seem to be very satisfactory.

Rewards.

61. The number of officers and men rewarded during the year under report was as follows :—

(1) By departmental promotions	140
(2) By the grant of two stripes	27
(3) By the grant of one stripe	42
(4) By the Abkári Department	71
(5) By the Magistrates	6
(6) By the issue of Good Service Tickets	520
(7) Otherwise rewarded	107
	913

No silver stripes were granted during the year. The above figures regarding rewards, though less than those appertaining to 1904, are about the same as those of 1903.

Exclusive of the officers and men rewarded as detailed above, Police Constable No. 92-A, Ladu Sadoji, and No. 1011-A, Daji Govind, were each presented with a Bronze Medal and Certificate awarded by the Royal Humane Society of London in recognition of their gallant action in saving life.

Health.

62. The total number of admissions into hospital during the year under report was 2,050 as against 1,905 in the year 1904 and 1,740 in 1903. The daily average on the sick list in the Native Constabulary was 45·23 as compared with 33·53 in the preceding year. The daily average on the sick list amongst the European Police was ·67 as against 1·36 in the year 1904 and ·76 in 1903.

The number of admissions in the hospital for the year under report is above the average of the preceding five years, and I would draw attention to the following extract from a report recently received from the Police Surgeon :—

"I regret to report, however, that the admissions and invalidings for consumption, pneumonia and other diseases fostered by overcrowding in dark, damp and insanitary dwellings continue abnormally high. I trust the better housing of the Police in proper lines or barracks will effect some improvement."

Casualties.

63. The following are the details of casualties that occurred during the year 1905 :—

Resignations	100
Discharges	15
Dismissals	24
Transfers	1
Deaths (including Acting Superintendent W. Wilkins) ...	46
Retirements on pension or gratuity	27
	213

The quinquennial average of casualties is 221. Of the 46 deaths recorded above as having occurred during 1905, 23 were due to plague as against 12 in 1904 and 26 in 1903. The large number of resignations (100) coupled with the fact that only 27 men received a gratuity or pension out of the total of 213 men who left the force appears to me to be a matter for reflection.

Education.

64. 194 officers (Europeans and Natives) and 579 men were able to read and write as compared with 200 officers and 559 men in 1904 and 192 officers and 543 men in 1903.

Recruiting.

65. The number of recruits enlisted during the year 1905 was 205 as against 214 in the year 1904.

In his report for the year 1903 Mr. Gell wrote:—"Very often difficulty is experienced in getting recruits of the required standard, particularly during the rains, when most of the able-bodied who can afford to do so return to their homes." I may incidentally mention that we have to depend on the Ratnágiri district for 70 per cent. of our recruits.

Resignations.

66. There were 100 resignations during the year as compared with 93 in the year preceding and 72 in 1903. I have already commented above on this subject.

Drill and Ball Practice.

67. Drill and Ball Practice is regularly taken by the Head Quarter Sub-Inspector.

Police Buildings.

68. Quarters for the Risaldar and 19 standings for the horses of the Mounted Police were completed during the year and made over by the City Improvement Trust to the Police for occupation.

Condition of Arms, Accoutrements and Ammunition.

69. They were regularly inspected and kept in proper order.

General efficiency and remarks.

70. The facts and figures in the foregoing paragraphs warrant in themselves the view that the efficiency of the force has been thoroughly maintained. And, when the circumstance of the Royal Visit and of the arrival and departure of the incoming and outgoing Viceroy—of which a brief sketch is given below—be considered in conjunction with the heavy work which ordinarily falls on the Police of this city, it may fairly be claimed that the force in responding to exceptional calls on it acquitted itself satisfactorily.

71. The good relations existing between the Magistracy and the Police continued during the year.

72. The year 1905 was one of the most remarkable on account of the visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales. Their Royal Highnesses landed on the 9th November in Bombay and remained till the night of the 14th. Three days latter, i. e., on the 17th, His Excellency Lord Minto arrived from England and next morning His Excellency Lord Curzon left Bombay in the Royal Indian Marine Ship "Dufferin." During the period and inclusive of the arrivals and departures of the incoming and outgoing Viceroys there were no less than 22 large functions requiring special Police arrangements. It is estimated that 300,000 people visited Bombay, whilst over 50 Native Princes, Chiefs and Sirdars with their retinues were gathered here. A considerable increase was moreover made to the Military and Naval forces in Bombay and the opportunity was taken to hold a People's Fair on the Esplanade. The harassing and responsible duties which had to be performed, night and day, during particularly trying weather resulted in Mr. Gell's health utterly breaking down. Similarly the Deputy Commissioner, Mr. Phillips' illness was directly attributable to the same cause, whilst the late Mr. Pogson was also incapacitated for a portion of the time he was down here on special duty. Moreover, 3 Superintendents and 8 Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors had to be placed on the sick list for various periods. His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was pleased to express his appreciation of the work of the Bombay City Police through Sir Arthur Bigge, Military Secretary, who wrote in the following terms to Mr. Gell :—

"I am directed by the Prince of Wales to ask you (Mr. Gell) to convey to the members of the Force under your command the assurances of his high appreciation of the manner in which they have performed their exceptionally heavy duties during the visit of the Princess of Wales and himself to Bombay.

"His Royal Highness wishes to thank you personally for all that you have done in organising and carrying out the excellent arrangements of your Department."

73. The Military Secretary to His Excellency the Viceroy and the Military Secretary to His Excellency the Governor, Lord Lamington, respectively telegraphed and wrote to Mr. Gell expressing Their Excellencies' high appreciation of the manner in which the Police had performed their duties.

74. The Superintendents, Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors appeared to have discharged their onerous duties most cheerfully and efficiently. The same must be said of Mr. Ramchandra Raghoba Dharadhar and Mr. Vinayek Dinanath, the Head Clerk and 1st Clerk in the office.

75. The following officers require special mention :—

Superintendents.

Mr. J. McDermott, Senior Superintendent.
„ E. H. Grennan, J.P., since retired.
„ W. J. Nolan.
„ J. Stanford.
Mr. W. Sanderson.
„ W. Sloane (Superintendent, Detective Branch).
„ D. Williamson.
„ C. J. Power.

Inspectors.

Khan Bahadur Shaikh Ebrahim.
J. Murray.
S. Favel.
Mirza Mahomedalli.
W. R. Jones.
E. L. Cauty.
P. Sullivan.
E. Morris.
M. Giles.
J. Hassan.

Sub-Inspector.

Mahomed Sikanderkhan.

76. In conclusion, I would mention that I feel sure that Mr. Gell would have desired to prominently bring to notice the services of Messrs. Lambert and Phillips, as also of the late Mr. Reinold, whose untimely death is deplored by the officers and men alike.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
W. L. B. SOUTER,
Acting Commissioner of Police.
